2.2. The Agent agrees to carry out the Services in a competent and professional manner.

2.3. The Agent will comply with the Landlord's obligation under the Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Alarm (England) Regulations 2015 to check all smoke alarms in the Property on the first day of the tenancy.

2.4. Right to Rent Check

2.4.1. The Agent agrees to carry out such Right to Rent checks as are required to comply with the requirements of the Immigration Act 2014 or such other legislation as are in force prior to the commencement of any tenancy of the Property. The Agent will always carry out the initial Right to Rent checks irrespective of the level of service the Landlord has chosen.

2.4.2. If further Right to Rent checks will be required during the term of a tenancy the Agent will let the Landlord know at the commencement of the tenancy when such checks are required.

2.4.3. Whether the Agent will carry out further Right to Rent checks is dependent on the level of service the Landlord has chosen, though the Landlord will be advised of their obligation to carry out further Right to Rent checks in accordance with clause 2.4.2. above. In the event the Landlord fails to carry out the Right to Rent checks having been advised of the need to do so by the Agent then the Agent will not be held responsible for any fines, costs, levies or prosecution that the Landlord may experience.

2.4.4. The Agent reserves the right to instruct third parties to carry out Right to Rent checks on their behalf - see Services and Fees sheet.

3. LET ONLY SERVICE

3.1. The Agent agree to visit the Property and recommend monthly or annual rental value, or such other period as shall be requested. Once approved by the Landlord this sum (the Rental Value) shall be used to calculate the Agent's fees. If appropriate the Rental Value shall take account of ground rent and service charges but shall not include utilities unless utilities are specifically to be included within the Rental Value.

3.2. The Agent agrees to advertise and market the Property at the Rental Value.

3.3. The Agent agrees to accompany prospective tenants to the Property and to provide them with any information they may request in respect of the Property. The Agent will endeavour to obtain feedback from prospective tenants and to report such feedback to the Landlord.

3.4. The Agent agrees to negotiate any offers from prospective tenants on behalf of the Landlord subject to the Landlord's prior authority.

3.5. The Agent agrees to obtain a holding deposit equivalent to one week's Rental Value from suitable prospective tenants to confirm their interest. The holding deposit will be treated in accordance with the Tenant Fees Act 2019.

3.6. The Agent agrees to notify the Landlord of the relevant details of suitable tenants, including any offers made in respect of the Property, subject to the Agent's obligations under UK GDPR. For the avoidance of doubt, the Agent may be limited in the level of information that can be provided to the Landlord, however the Agent will provide, at the very least, a general indication of the tenant's suitability.

3.7. The Agent, unless otherwise instructed by the Landlord, will instruct an independent referencing agency in order to obtain a credit reference report in respect of prospective tenants who have provided a holding deposit in respect of the Property, or any guarantor of such prospective tenants. The Landlord agrees to pay the cost of obtaining a credit reference report as set out on the Services and Fees sheet.

3.7.1. The Landlord accepts that the Agent is not responsible in any way for the accuracy or completeness of the information provided or for the accuracy or completeness of the credit reference report.

3.7.2. If the Landlord instructs the Agent not to obtain a reference they accept that the Agent cannot be held responsible for any consequences that arise out of that decision. Such consequences may include failure of the tenant(s) to pay rent on time, or at all, and breach of the Landlord's insurance policy.

3.8. The Agent agrees to arrange for a suitable date of commencement for the tenancy. The Landlord accepts that if a date of commencement is agreed but the Landlord subsequently withdraws prior to commencement of the tenancy (Abortive Tenancy), the holding deposit will be returned to the tenants in accordance with the Tenant Fees Act 2019 and the Landlord will be responsible for the fees incurred by the Agent as set out on the Services and Fees sheet.

3.9. The Agent agrees to provide a standard form of tenancy agreement under an Assured Shorthold Tenancy, the cost of which is to be borne by the Landlord as set out on the Services and Fees sheet. The Landlord may inspect this prior to the commencement of the tenancy and may request amendments or additional terms, the cost of which is again to be borne by the Landlord as set out on the Services and Fees sheet. The Landlord accepts that the Agent is not responsible in any way for the legality or consequence of additional or amended terms in the tenancy agreement requested by the Landlord and is advised to seek separate legal advice. Where an Assured Shorthold Tenancy is not the appropriate form of tenancy agreement, the Agent will provide the appropriate form of tenancy agreement.

3.10. The Agent agrees to comply with any of the Landlord's statutory obligations for service of documents (for example, serving the How to Rent Guide on the tenant(s)) at the start of the tenancy, but the Landlord remains responsible for compliance with statutory obligations once the tenancy has begun. The Agent will advise the Landlord of what and when additional documentation may need to be provided after the initial documents are served.

4. LET ONLY AND RENT COLLECTION SERVICE

4.1. If the Landlord instructs the Agent on a Letting and Rent Collection Service, the Agent and Landlord hereby agree to each clause under this heading, in addition to Clause 3. above.

4.2. Where the tenancy is an Assured Shorthold Tenancy and a cash deposit is taken, the Agent agrees to collect the tenancy deposit from the tenant(s) prior to the commencement of the tenancy and hold the sum as stakeholder in the Agent's client account. The Agent will within 30 days of receiving the tenancy deposit register this with the Deposit protection scheme and provide them with their contact details. Failure on the part of the Landlord to provide such information that may be required in order to register the tenancy deposit within 30 days of the tenancy deposit being received by the Agent shall result in the Agent returning the tenancy deposit to the tenant(s). The Agent will within 30 days of receiving the tenancy deposit provide the tenant(s) with the Prescribed Information and such information as is required to satisfy the requirements of Section 213 of the Housing Act 2004. For information about the deposit scheme, see the Tenancy Deposit Scheme section.

4.3. Where the tenancy is not an Assured Shorthold Tenancy and a cash deposit is taken, the Agent agrees to collect the tenancy deposit from the tenant(s) prior to the commencement of the tenancy and hold the sum in the Agent's client account.

4.4. The Agent agrees to arrange for a professional independent inventory clerk to provide an Inventory and Schedule of Condition prior to the commencement of any tenancy covered by this agreement. The Landlord agrees to bear the costs of this as set out on the Services and Fees sheet. The Landlord accepts that the Agent cannot accept liability for errors or omissions on the part of the independent inventory clerk. If the Landlord instructs the Agent not to obtain an Inventory and Schedule of Condition then they accept that the Agent cannot be held responsible for any consequences that arise out of that decision. Such consequences may include an inability to claim for damage to the Property, including and in excess of the amount held as a tenancy deposit.

4.5. The Agent will collect all rents payable from the tenant(s) in respect of the Property at the intervals at which such rent becomes due.

4.6. The Agent agrees to transfer the cleared rental payments less their fees and other recoverable expenses within 14 days of receipt. The Agent shall also provide the Landlord with a monthly statement of rents received (the Statement) and, at the request of the Landlord, provide the Statement to the Landlord's accountant or other authorised person. Additional copies of Statements are available, the cost of which is to be borne by the Landlord as set out on the Services and Fees sheet.

4.7. The Agent agrees to use their reasonable endeavours to contact the tenant(s) if the rent due under the tenancy agreement is not received when it falls due for payment. Full details of the rent chasing procedure can be provided upon request.

4.8. The Agent agrees to notify the Landlord of any instances where rent or other sums due from the tenants have been outstanding for more than 7 days, even if the payments have subsequently been received.

4.9. The Agent will contact the Landlord three months before the end of the fixed term of the tenancy to enquire whether the Landlord intends to renew the tenancy or terminate. If the Landlord wishes to terminate then the Agent will be able to serve a notice to terminate the tenancy at the end of the fixed term, the fee for which is in the Services and Fees sheet. If the Landlord wishes to renew the tenancy then the Agent will liaise with the tenant(s) to see if they wish to renew. If the tenant(s) wish to renew then the Agent will prepare a Renewal Agreement, the fee for which is in the Services and Fees sheet. This fee will be payable once the Renewal Agreement has been drafted and regardless of whether the Renewal actually takes place.

4.10. The Agent agrees to arrange for a professional independent inventory clerk to provide a Check Out Report and Schedule of Condition within 5 days of the tenant(s) surrendering possession of the Property. The Landlord agrees to bear the costs of this as per the Services and Fees sheet. The Landlord accepts that the Agent cannot accept liability for errors or omissions on the part of the independent inventory clerk.

4.11. The Landlord accepts that it is his responsibility to communicate with the tenant(s) at the end of the tenancy and agree how the tenancy deposit should be allocated. The Agent will only release the tenancy deposit on the written authority of the Landlord and the tenant, which must specify how much (if any) is to be retained by the Landlord. The Agent agrees to release the tenancy deposit within 10 working days of receipt of written instructions from the Landlord and the tenant.

4.12. In the event a settlement cannot be reached, the Agent will continue to hold the deposit for the duration of any claim that the Landlord or the tenant(s) may make through the Courts or via an adjudication process, provided such steps are taken in a timely manner.

4.13. If an agreement is not reached between the Landlord and the tenant(s) within 10 days, the tenant(s) have the right to apply to the tenancy deposit scheme that protected the tenancy deposit to adjudicate on the proposed deductions. The Landlord is advised that whilst the Agent can assist in this regard, if the Landlord does not respond in a timely manner then the tenancy deposit scheme may adjudicate solely upon the tenant(s) evidence.

4.14. The tenant(s) may elect not to use their right to use the tenancy deposit scheme's adjudication process, or may not have the right to use it. In these circumstances, if there is still a dispute, the Landlord must take steps to resolve the matter which may include issuing proceedings via the Court. The Landlord should take legal advice in this regard. If the Landlord does not take timely steps to genuinely resolve the matter then the Agent reserves the right to return the tenancy deposit to the tenant(s) so that the Landlord may pursue the tenant(s) directly. The Landlord is advised that the tenant(s) also have the ability to pursue the Landlord through the Court for the return of the tenancy deposit.

4.15. If the Landlord elects to terminate this Agreement, the Landlord must register with one of the authorised tenancy deposit schemes and provide the Agent with all of the information and documentation required to transfer the tenancy deposit to the Landlord or the nominated scheme. If the Landlord fails to do this the Agent shall return the tenancy deposit to the tenant(s).

4.16. If the Landlord elects to terminate this Agreement but retains at least one of the tenant(s) originally found by the Agent then the Landlord's instructions to the Agent will be on the basis of a Let Only Service, the fees for which are set in the Services and Fees sheet, until such time as all tenant(s) originally found by the Agent have vacated the Property.

5. FULL MANAGEMENT SERVICE

5.1. If the Landlord instructs the Agent on a Full Management Service, the Agent and Landlord hereby agree to each clause under this heading, in addition to Clauses 3. & 4. above.

5.2. In addition to Clause 3.10. the Agent will continue to comply with any of the Landlord's statutory obligations during the tenancy by notifying the Landlord of the need for inspections to be carried out. Where these inspections generate documents that must be served on the tenant(s) the Agent will serve these within any relevant statutory time limit.

5.3. The Agent agrees to write to the utility companies and the local authority to inform them of the new occupants of the Property and the date of commencement of the tenancy, and to provide details of meter readings where possible to obtain.

5.4. The Landlord agrees that the Agent will retain from the initial rental payment a sum equivalent to one week's Rental Value (the Fund), which shall be held to create a repair fund. The Fund shall be replenished to the same level through deductions from subsequent rental payments if necessary. With the Landlord's consent the Fund can be increased to more than one week's Rental Value.

5.5. The Agent agrees to carry out at least 1 visit per year to the Property to inspect the state of repair of the Property and to identify all reasonably necessary works of repair and maintenance. The Landlord may request that the Agent makes additional visits to the Property but agrees that the cost of this shall be borne by the Landlord as per the Services and Fees sheet. The Agent shall provide the Landlord with an inspection report within 14 days or each visit.

5.6. The Agent, if agreed with the Landlord, agrees to pay outgoings in relation to the Property provided the Agent holds sufficient funds in the Fund. The liability for such outgoings remains the responsibility of the Landlord and the Agent will not accept any liability for late or missed payments.

5.7. The Agent will notify the Landlord as soon as practicable of any occasion where the Agent is unable to discharge any liability of the Landlord or where the Agent is unable to instruct contractors due to insufficient funds in the Fund. For the avoidance of doubt, in this scenario the Landlord must either arrange works themselves, or transfer sufficient funds to the Agent for the Agent to arrange for works. Depending on the value and complexity of the work the Agent reserves the right to charge additional fees for overseeing this work, as set out in the Services and Fees sheet. The Agent retains the right to refuse instructions of such work at which point the responsibility for such work will revert to the Landlord.

5.8. The Landlord authorises the Agent to instruct contractors to carry out general repairs and maintenance to the Property up to the value of the Fund. The Agent is under no obligation to seek the prior approval of the Landlord to arrange such works. These works will be paid for from the Fund.

5.9. The Agent, except in the case of emergency, shall seek authority from the Landlord before instructing contractors to carry out any works which will cost more than the Fund. Upon receipt of such instructions from the Landlord, the Agent will instruct competent contractors to carry out the work. The Agent reserves the right to request sufficient monies to pay for such works before the Agent acts on the instructions.

5.10. In an emergency the Agent will have discretion to incur unauthorised works above the agreed Fund (see Clause 5.4.) provided. This discretion will only be exercised where the Agent has made an attempt to contact the Landlord on three separate occasions using no fewer than two methods of communication provided to the Agent, and where failure to immediately remedy such works would cause the Landlord and/or tenant(s) far greater loss. A gas leak or a burst water pipe would be examples of emergency works. The cost of these works will be reimbursed from the next rental payment(s) following the expenditure, or from the Landlord directly.

5.11. The Agent, unless the Landlord specifically asks it not to, shall supervise repair or maintenance work of the Property. Supervision of works shall be chargeable by the Agent and the Landlord agrees to bear the cost of this as per the Services and Fees sheet. Works estimated to cost in excess of £10,000.00 (inclusive of VAT) will be chargeable by the Agent at a higher rate and the Landlord agrees to bear the cost of this as set out on the Services and Fees sheet.

5.12. The Agent agrees to show on the Statement all deductions of sums in respect of the Property.

5.13. The Agent agrees to negotiate between the Landlord and the tenant(s) in the event that there is a dispute over the tenancy deposit at the termination of the tenancy. The Agent will in the course of this accept all reasonable instructions from the Landlord but must also abide by a general doctrine of fairness in all cases. The Landlord agrees to bear the cost of the Agent's time and effort in negotiations (which might include finding and referring the dispute to an arbitrator) as per the Services and Fees sheet. The Landlord is referred to The Tenancy Deposit section of this Agreement for more information.

5.14. The Agent will not be responsible for the management of any areas that are not demised to the tenant(s) as part of the Property.

6. VOID MANAGEMENT

6.1. If the Landlord instructs the Agent on a Void Management Service, the Agent and the Landlord hereby agree to each clause under this heading.

6.2. The Agent agrees to visit the Property and recommend a monthly fee for the Void Management Service, which shall be agreed in writing as per the Services and Fees sheet. The Landlord agrees to pay this fee in advance of each month.

6.3. The Agent agrees to visit the Property once per week (during normal office hours) and recommend to the Landlord any repair or maintenance deemed necessary for the Property, and to seek the Landlord's instructions as to the carrying out of such work. Upon receipt of such instructions from the Landlord, the Agent will instruct competent contractors to carry out the work required. The Landlord agrees that the Agent will charge an administration fee of 12% of the net invoice for such works.

6.4. The Landlord agrees to provide the Agent with funds as indicated on the Services and Fees sheet in order for the Agent to employ contractors to carry out agreed works.

6.5. The Agent will be responsible for liaising with insurance companies and utility companies where necessary and will attend the Property to allow access for contractors.

6.6. Oh Goodlord Limited (Goodlord) has been engaged by us to provide energy supply management services, council tax and water supply registration for your Property.

6.7. You hereby authorise us to use Goodlord to manage the energy supply during any void period for the property. You acknowledge that this may result in a change to the electricity and/or gas supplier for the Property, but are aware that you will remain able to change to a different provider if desired.

6.8. You agree that we may pass your name and contact details to Goodlord for the purposes of managing the electricity and/or gas supply for the Property and completing registrations for council tax and water supply. Full details of how Goodlord process your information can be found at: <https://www.goodlord.co/privacy-policy>.

6.9. Once the Tenant has taken possession of the property they can choose an appropriate supplier if they wish.

7. FEES

7.1. The Landlord agrees that the Agent's fees shall be payable where the tenant(s) (or an individual introduced as part of a group of tenants) are found as result of a viewing conducted by the Agent and/or due to the advertising of the Property during this Agreement and/or through the Landlord's own contacts and/or through a third party's contacts whilst this agreement is in force. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event the Landlord instructs multiple agents to market the Property, if the Agent has conducted a viewing with prospective tenant(s), but the prospective tenant(s) (or an individual introduced as part of a group of tenants) agrees a tenancy for the Property through another agent, the Agent reserves the right to charge a fee for their work. The fee for this is set in the Services and Fees sheet as Abortive Tenancy (Property marketed).

7.2. The Agent's fees, as well as any other sums that may be owing to the Agent from the Landlord, will be deducted from the Rental Value, though the Agent reserves the right to charge the Landlord directly for any shortfall. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event the tenant(s) do not pay part or all of the rent to the Agent or otherwise, the Agent reserves the right to invoice the Landlord directly for the fee.

7.3. For invoicing purposes the Agent's fees are owed each month in advance coinciding with the first day of the tenancy. The Agent reserves the right to change the invoicing period to coincide with the way the rent is paid.

7.4. If the fees outlined under this heading are not paid by the Landlord by the due dates, interest shall accrue at the rate of 4% per annum above the base rate from time to time of Barclays Bank plc. If any payments remain outstanding for 21 days or more, the Agent shall be entitled to suspend the Services for the Landlord until such sums are paid in full. The Landlord agrees to pay all fees incurred by the Agent in collecting outstanding sums.

7.5. The Landlord agrees that any fees due to the Agent and payable by the tenant(s) under the terms of the tenancy agreement can be recovered from the tenancy deposit and take priority over any claim the Landlord has against the tenancy deposit.

7.6. The Agent reserves the right to recover any fees due to them and payable under the terms of the tenancy agreement from the Landlord in the event that they cannot be recovered through the tenancy deposit.

7.7. The Agent reserves the right to alter the figures in the Services and Fees sheet. The Agent will give the Landlord 1 months⁹ notice and the fee alteration will take effect on the next date on which fees are due once the notice has expired.

7.8. VAT will be levied at the prevailing rate. Where fees are quoted inclusive of VAT within this Agreement, the VAT is calculated at the current rate of 20%.

8. THE TENANCY DEPOSIT

8.1. In accordance with the Housing Act 2004, the tenancy deposit of any Assured Shorthold Tenancy (non-Assured Shorthold Tenancies are excluded) must be protected by an approved, recognised scheme.

8.2. The Agent is registered with N/A.

8.3. If the Agent is a member of a deposit replacement scheme (DRS).

- 8.3.1. The DRS operates by requiring the tenant(s) to take out an insurance policy with them. Once the tenancy comes to an end the DRS will pay up to a certain amount for any insurable damage caused by the tenant(s).
- 8.3.2. The DRS terms and conditions are enclosed with this Agreement which will set out the maximum amount payable under the DRS policy.
- 8.3.3. The Landlord must confirm if they wish to use the DRS before the start of the tenancy.
- 8.3.4. The Landlord is responsible for making a claim with the DRS at the end of the tenancy, though the Agent will endeavour to provide the Landlord with helpful information for such a claim in line with the requirements of their Service.

9. RENT PROTECTION SERVICE
